

JIGSAW DISCUSSION HANDOUT

Directions: Take notes on this handout in your jigsaw groups. You should have one person from each character group in your jigsaw group. You must write at least 5 sentences to meet the standard.

GUY MONTAG

CAPTAIN BEATTY

FABER

MILDRED MONTAG

JIGSAW RUBRIC

CRITERIA	ADVANCED (21-25)	PROFICIENT (16-20)	DEVELOPING (11-15)	NOVICE (0-10)
PREP WORK (CORNELL NOTES)	You take thorough notes and include at least 3 keywords which are expanded upon; notes are unique.	You take adequate notes and includes at least 2 keywords which are expanded upon; notes are unique for the most part.	You attempt notes and include at least 1 keyword which may or may not be expanded upon; notes are somewhat unique.	Notes are incomplete, you do not turn in prep work, or work is illegible; You do not create unique notes.
RESPONSE (HANDOUT)	Response demonstrates active listening and engagement during discussion; you write more than 4 sentences per character box.	Response demonstrates adequate listening and engagement during discussion; you write at least 4 sentences per character box.	Response demonstrates some listening and little engagement; you write 2-3 sentences per character box.	Jigsaw handout is incomplete, you write 1 sentence per character box; You do not turn in handout, or work is illegible.
PARTICIPATION	You actively participate and effectively convey information to peers; you allow peers to participate in discussion as well; information is free of errors.	You actively participate, but do not allow peers a chance to speak; information is mostly accurate, with a few errors that do not impede understanding.	You slightly participate, but do not allow peers a chance to speak; information is accurate for the most part, but a few errors impede understanding.	You do not actively participate in discussion; you copy notes from jigsaw group members; information is inaccurate.
TEXTUAL EVIDENCE (MLA)	You include 3-4 pieces of textual evidence; you use proper MLA citation format.	You include 2-3 pieces of textual evidence; MLA citations are mostly correct.	You include 1 pieces of textual evidence; MLA citation format is attempted.	You do not include any quotes; MLA format is ignored or not available on student work.
				Total: